Simon Baynes Wholesale Visits Herbs Unlimited

Earlier this month Sean, one of our newest employees at Simon Baynes Wholesale, took a trip to the Herbs Unlimited farm in Thirsk, North Yorkshire. Sean and the Herbs Unlimited team discussed the wide range of products grown on the farm from Traditional Herbs to Kale and how each product is relevant to our individual customers.

There are 4 different colours of Kale available fresh from the field in Thirsk; Green, Pink, Purple and White! We think these look spectacular and will bring some amazing colours to a meal or soup. Edible flowers are also available throughout winter and Sean even got to meet some award winning edible flowers!

As always, we pride ourselves on sourcing the most local of products and feel spoilt that this fantastic supplier is located just 30 miles away.

Christmas is coming

This month we have one eye on the festive season and have the products to match! Mixed Chantenay Carrots are just £2 a kg! Whilst Roger Descours' Chestnut purée is only £6.95 which will provide a festive taste to anything. We think the mixed Chantenay carrots are perfect with their sweet taste and they have the added bonus that they are as pleasing on the eye as they are to the taste buds!

We are also stocking plenty of pre-prepared sprouts; we'll do the hard preparation work for you so you can concentrate on producing the fantastic meals! Vacuum-packed chestnuts are also available for £4.99 a pack, these remove any of the hassle preparing your own chestnuts!
